

Midwest Economics Association

83rd Annual Meeting

March 15-17, 2019

UNDERGRADUATE CALL FOR PAPERS

The Midwest Economics Association (MEA) invites submission of proposals by undergraduates. From those submitting proposals, a selection will be invited to present research papers at the upcoming 83rd Annual Meeting. The conference will take place from March 15-17, 2019, at the Hyatt Regency St. Louis at the Arch in St. Louis, Missouri. There will be special sessions set aside for undergraduate research presentations at the conference.

Please refer to the MEA website [mea.grinnell.edu] for the Undergraduate Proposal Submission Form and guidelines for submitting a proposal. There is a $20 fee for submitting an undergraduate research proposal. Once accepted for presentation, there is a $45 conference registration fee due in February. Conference registration provides access to all conference sessions and activities.

Deadline for Undergraduate Proposals: December 1, 2018

Conference Speakers

Dr. William N. Evans, Keough-Hesburgh Professor of Economics and Department Chair at the University of Notre Dame, will deliver the C. Woody Thompson Lecture on Friday, March 15.

On March 16, Dr. Kerwin Charles, MEA President and Edwin A. and Betty L. Bergman Distinguished Service Professor at the University of Chicago will deliver the Presidential Lecture.
